

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
10th January 2008

Avanquest Solutions and Legal Rapport associate to deliver scaleable IT solutions specifically for the legal sector.

Avanquest Solutions, provider of IT solutions to the legal sector, is partnering with integrated telecommunications specialist Legal Rapport to deliver vendor independent, legal centric IT solutions for law firms.

Tom Hiscocks, Sales Director of Legal Rapport says “Avanquest have a track record of delivering valuable communications solutions into the legal sector, and a client list including many of the UK’s top law firms. Their product range and sector experience compliments our own. I am confident that this partnership will support Legal Rapport’s commitment to addressing our customer’s business challenges through integrated telecommunications.”

Avanquest business process solutions will build on the tried and trusted Mitel technology supplied to legal organisations by Legal Rapport.

A range of integrated applications are designed to meet a client’s exact requirements. Solutions for enterprise fax, SMS or continuous availability will build on existing switch systems to deliver:

- Cluster Class availability and DR for Blackberry Enterprise Servers.
- Unified Messaging - supporting IP Telephony and Traditional telephone environments and all email environments.
- Production faxing - supporting FOIP and Traditional telephone environments and all email environments.
- Workflow, archive and document capture and processing - supporting most scanners, MFP’s and Practice/Document management systems.
- SMS enablement of a firms applications - notifications etc.
- Audio, video, webinar conferencing and secure instant messaging -all web based with no reliance on telephony or IT infrastructure.

Chris Thompson, Managing Director, Avanquest comments “Adding business process solutions to an organisation’s communications infrastructure delivers a quantifiable return on investment and quickly delivers tangible benefits - SMS messaging for conveyancing updates, secure faxing over IP and unifying communications offer massive and proven efficiencies for the legal profession ”
